Stallholder Terms & Conditions of Booking

Thank you for booking with Haddon Events. By applying and standing at any event you agree to abide by the following terms and conditions:

- 1. Payments – The balance of your stall/s must be paid for at least one month prior to the event to secure your booking. It is a condition of booking that you understand this.
- 2. Cancellations - Cancellations will be accepted up to one month prior to the event date. Any bookings cancelled within one month of the event date will forfeit the total fee. Any cancellations must be put in writing. No refunds can be given for any cancellations after this time.
- 3. Health & Safety - Stallholders need to be mindful of Health and Safety. Stallholders are asked to clear away all boxes, bags etc before the event opens, ensuring public walkways are clear. It is a condition of your standing at our events that you/your company conducts its activities in accordance with all relevant health and safety, food, and environment regulations during the installation and dismantling of your stand, as well as the activities for the duration of the show. Haddon Events will not be held responsible for any accident caused by stallholders negligence.
- 4. Public Liability Insurance - All stallholders must hold Public Liability Insurance with a minimum cover of £1 million. It is the sole responsibility of each trade stand, exhibitor, contractor or entertainer to arrange adequate insurance cover for all equipment and personnel attending the event. All exhibitors must have a copy of their own public liability insurance with them at the event.
- 5. Stands - The location of stalls will be determined by Haddon Events, whose decision is final. Every endeavour will be made to meet the general wishes of stallholders with regard to position, without causing unfairness to others. Haddon Events reserve the right to move the position of a stallholder's stand without prior notice.
 - 5.1 We do not guarantee exclusivity to any stallholder.
 - 5.2 Power supply is only provided to stalls if booked prior to the event. It is the stallholder's responsibility to ensure they have completed the relevant section on the booking form. Electrical equipment must be PAT tested. Kettles and heaters are not permitted. Haddon Events will not be held responsible for any loss of power.
 - 5.3 Any tables, chairs etc supplied by Haddon Events are the responsibility of the stallholder and it is up to the stallholder to check, upon arrival, that any tables are correctly and safely opened. Haddon Events cannot be liable for any breakages.
 - 5.4. Stallholders are solely responsible for their stall and all goods & services they supply.
 - 5.5 Haddon Events reserve the right to ask exhibitors to remove any goods considered unsuitable.

5.6. To comply with Trading Standards Regulations, all exhibitors must ensure that all goods are clearly priced.

5.7. Stallholders are responsible for their own stock. Haddon Events will not be held responsible for any loss or theft from your stall.

6. Food Exhibitors – Please note that stallholders must adhere to The Food Law Code of Practice as set by the FSA, and provide Food Safety and Hygiene Rating Certificates and any necessary documentation relating to their business. These documents should also be available for inspection on their stand.
